FAMILIES ANONYMOUS

2017 WORLD SERVICE CONVENTION JUNE 2-4, 2017

Doubletree by Hilton - Evansville, IN

Program At A Glance

Our convention begins at 4:00 PM Friday evening with registration and a Meet and Greet. Dinner will be on your own, choosing among a variety of excellent choices in or near Downtown Evansville. Saturday features our keynote speaker, followed by a wide variety of programs and workshops throughout the day. Browse the silent auction items, take in a relaxing chair massage, and mingle with FA colleagues during breakfast, lunch, and breaks. Saturday evening enjoy a delicious group dinner, entertainment, dancing, and plenty of fun. Breakfast Sunday includes a motivating speaker with an interactive event, in celebration of hope and dedication to recovery.

Saturday's Crossroads to Recovery workshops include:

Routes
Self care is of utmost importance as we venture through recovery. These workshops focus on reclaiming and re-energizing the mind and body.

- Meditation and Massage
- Tai Chi
- Journaling

Attractions
As we know, the entire family is involved whenever a loved one is afflicted with the disease of addiction. These workshops provide insight into community resources.

- The CRAFT Approach: Community Reinforcement Approach and Family Training
- Dealing with Mental Health Issues

Destinations
Fellow FA Members provide useful tools as we travel the course of recovery.

- Finding Joy on Your Journey
- FA Sponsorship
- 12 Step Yoga

Roadmaps
These workshops focus on issues that arise in dealing with addiction and related mental or emotional problems.

- How Indiana's Drug Court System works
- Legally Speaking
- Dealing with Mental and Emotional Issues
